Totals Announced For SB Project

Approximate figures for the results of the Student Body Project total $2,130.00, according to senior George Whinna, project chairman.

Purchasing furniture for the lounge in the new addition to the Student Union is the project for this year as part of a plan to include student help with the growth of Wartburg.

GIVING IN the dormitories broke down as follows: Centennial Hall — $158.50; Clinton — $232.76; Grossmann—$241.45; Hebron — $290.00; North — $43.25; Vollmer — $233.25; and Wartburg — $88.00.

Men's houses made contributions in these amounts: Alpha — $45.50; Beta — $27.50; Gamma— $38.50; and Vollmer — $35.00.

Gifts from other sources include Senate — $65 and Off-campus — $3.

TOTAL CONTRIBUTIONS amounted to approximately $1,450.00.

It is expected that after expenses, the Carnival will clear $436.00.

Pi Sigma, women's organization, has voted to contribute $100 to the project.

Women's Judiciary Council is giving the $60 made on Penny Night after the Carnival as well as voting to contribute an additional $90 for a total of $150.

IN COMMENTING on the Carnival Whinna stated that it was a big success and expressed congratulations to juniors Bob Braun and Terry Havel who so ably served as chairmen of the event.

"Due to the success of this year's Carnival, things should be easier for next year's chairman," said Whinna.

Thanks are also extended by the various committees to the townspeople who attended and helped to make the Carnival a success.

For those who would still like a momento of the Carnival and also a useful aid for summer sunning, hats are being sold at a reduced rate at the KWAR office, concluded Whinna.

Future Beanie-Wearers?

VISITATION DAY brought 335 students to the Wartburg campus from a five-state area. The day was filled with tours, counselling, speeches, sports events and a musical performance.

Senior Class Selects Gift

The contribution of the Class of 1963 to the Wartburg campus will be an outside bulletin board and campus map in one structure, according to Carolyn Grout, senior class secretary.

Seniors voted this week on their class project.

Other possible projects were personal portraits of faculty in the library, park benches for the campus and microfilming for the library.

A tentative sketch of the structure will be prepared and presented at the Alumni Banquet Sunday evening, May 5, said Miss Grout.

The project will be discussed in more detail at this time.

Play To Feature Faculty

Members of the faculty, their husbands and wives, will be featured in a play to be given some time early next fall, according to John Gill, drama director.

A general call for tryouts will be issued in the near future and casting will be completed before the present school term ends.

All faculty members will be contacted and the committee hopes that many of them will be interested in trying out, said Gill.

In the past the faculty has done several other types of shows, a variety show in 1960 being the most recent.

However, it was felt that the students and the community would be interested in seeing the faculty in a play, especially since they have not appeared in a show in some time.

Under consideration for the show are "Arsenic and Old Lace," You Can't Take it With You" and a melodrama.

"Any suggestions concerning the choice will be appreciated," said Gill.

Banquet, Prom Await Students Tonight

In just a few short hours the seniors will be feted at a Junior-Senior Banquet, followed by an all-school Prom with music by Bob White.

Beginning at 6:30 p.m. with the banquet, Dr. W. F. Schmidt will officially open the proceedings with the invocation. Dr. P. A. Kildahl of the English Department is the featured speaker.

A WOMEN'S TRIO, composed of juniors Karen Kruger, Ruth Ann Ringhand and Donna Ostendorf, and a piano duet by juniors Allen Mardorf and Jim Matthias will be the entertainment. Orv McElfresh is master of ceremonies.

Dancing will begin at 9 p.m. and end at 1 a.m. instead of 12 midnight as was previously announced. Cost for the dance is $3.

"The decorations are unusual this year. We are using the cafes to break up the dance floor. Also, the hanging tables in the north balcony will be decorated more, in the hope that more people will use them," said Prom co-chairman Ron Burrichter.

"WE HAVE HIGH hopes of the band music being very danceable. The orchestra is one of the finest ten-piece bands in the Midwest," he added.

"We are trying to create an illusion of spring with flowers, outdoor cafes and stars overhead. The punch will be served in the three different cafes rather than a central line, and the cookies are homemade," said Prom co-chairman Carol Johnson.

Other decorations include an Eiffel Tower, an Arc de Triumph, a park scene and an operating fountain.

Dr. Edwin A. Schick Launches Two New Ventures

Prof., Wife Take Honors

By Dick Braun

Dr. and Mrs. Edwin A. Schick were recently appointed for a two-year term as Danforth Associates at Wartburg, beginning with the 1963-64 academic year.

William H. K. Narum, chairman of the Selection Committee of the Upper Midwest Region of the Danforth Associates, made the announcement that Wartburg had been chosen and also appointed Schicks.

This will be the first time the Wartburg faculty has participated in the Associates Program, according to Schick. The calendar year of the Associate program begins July 1.

Danforth Associates are college and university faculty members and their wives who have shown concern for the personal dimension in education.

The Danforth Associate Program was started in 1941 to develop the personal aspects of faculty-student relationships on the campus.

It is part of the Danforth Foundation created in 1927 by Mr. and Mrs. William H. Danforth of St. Louis to strengthen higher education through its programs and grants to colleges and universities.

Candidates for the program are accepted on the approval of one of the 14 regional selection committees and confirmation by the staff of the Foundation. These committees are composed of active and senior Associates.

Accepted candidates serve a two-year term and may be reappointed for a second term if requirements are met. Associates may be invited to become Senior Associates upon completion of all duties and four years in the program.

Associates must work for better faculty-student relationships through open house situations following special plays or lectures, discussion groups, individual relationships with students and luncheons.

They must also encourage faculty and students to deepen religious experience through the arts and sceinces, worship, conversations and work in campus life, according to Schick.

The Schicks, who will receive an annual grant, got their first experience involving the appointment at the end of April when they attended the Upper Midwest Regional Convention in Minneapolis.

BUSY CLASS SCHEDULES leave Schick little time for preparation for his Israeli summer seminar.

Israel Summer Seminar Destination For Schick

Dr. Edwin A. Schick, Religion Department, will journey to Tell Nagila, Israel, this summer as a member of the Negev Archeological Seminar to be held July 11 to Sept. 8.

First invited to join the seminar a year ago by Dr. Charles T. Fritsch, professor of Old Testament at Princeton Theological Seminary, Schick then felt he could not participate in the program.

Since then, Dr. Schick received a gift of $1,200 from one of his former Old Testament students toward a trip to Israel. Schick gratefully acknowledges that this gift has made the trip possible.

The Negev Archeological Seminar is a unique educational program, sponsored by the Institute for Mediterranean Studies, Berkeley, Calif.

The Institute is a non-profit, tax-exempt organization, financed by contributions. It is dedicated to the search for scientific knowledge gained from archeological discoveries.

Under the direction of Dr. Fritsch, the seminar offers courses in Biblical Hebrew, Historical Geography of the Holy Land, Biblical Archeology and field work.

Courses are given for credit through six associated institutions of higher learning, including Princeton Theological Seminary.

The Seminar utilizes the excavation at Tell Nagila as a training area in the practical application of archeology.

The Institute's first Tell Nagila expedition in the summer of 1962, directed by Richard A. Mitchell and conducted in cooperation with the Israel Exploration Society, unearthed a Hyksos city, dating from the 15th to 17th centuries, B.C.

The Seminar is limited to 30 students at a cost of $1,350 per individual. The trip to Tell Nagila will be via New York, Rome, Athens, Amman, Jerusalem, Bethlehem, Hebron, Samaria, Shechem and Shiloh. Students will tour Rome and Athens.

Field work and classes at Tell Nagila will be held July 22 through Aug. 8. Students will live at the Agricultural School near Beersheba.

Aug. 10 to 31 the Seminar will continue its courses in Jerusalem. Students will use the study and research facilities of the Archeological Institute of the Hebrew University.

Students will visit Haifa, Tel Aviv, Caesarea, Mount Tabor, Cana, the Sea of Galilee and Capernaum Sept. 1 to 6. Examinations will be administered Sept. 7 and students will return to New York by air Sept. 8.

Dr. Schick, who is becoming increasingly excited at the prospect of his first trip abroad, says "it should contribute to a more effective teaching of the Bible."

EDITORIAL

Tomorrow . . .

The lag has arrived — the time of the year when everything is due and nothing gets done.

Whatever it was that was conducive to studying is absent now — and an hour in the library seems the worst of all evils.

More inviting than the textbook, the library, and the classroom are such places as the dry-run, the banks of the river, the tennis courts, the golf course, the den . . .

Procrastination is THE word for the season. Whatever I can put off till tomorrow seems like a good idea.

Everyday is Outfly, or it seems. Even if it isn't Outfly, one can pretend it is. After all, since I spent Outfly studying I should be able to celebrate double or triple for it now, shouldn't I?

Cries of "Why didn't I save my cuts? Even though I needed the sleep then, I sure would like to be outside now." Or better yet, "Boy, I'm glad I've got 300 or 400 courses — those sure do come in handy sometimes."

Whoever heard of getting things done early? What a silly idea! They only lay around when they get done too soon. Besides, then people call me a gunner and what a horrible thing to be called.

Heck, there's only a month of school left anyway. What can happen in a month? If I get bad grades now I can bring them up with final exams. But why worry about finals so early? They're about three weeks away yet and it's much too soon to start worrying.

I wonder if I'll ever finish this editorial and come to the point — well, I can finish it tomorrow . . .

Graduation: The time when everyone who is finally convinced he is someone becomes no one again.

New Senate To Replace Old

By Dick Buchsteiner

On Monday evening a joint meeting will be held between this year's Senate and the newly elected Senate.

After this year's group conducts its final business, the gavel will be turned over to Nelson Meyer and another chapter will begin in Wartburg College student government.

IT WILL BE interesting to watch the progress of the new Senate which has a number of new personnel on it. With new faces come new ideas and this is an ingredient which is essential in keeping student government progressing.

Buchsteiner

I have a great deal of confidence in the new officers and senators and am sure that student government will be in qualified hands during the coming year. Improvements can be made in certain areas of this year's activities and the new legislators are aware of what needs to be done.

One week from today a Leadership Retreat will be held to further prepare the incoming Senate for its duties and responsibilities and how to carry them out most effectively. During the retreat, final questions and recommendations will be discussed to help bring about a smooth transition from one government to the other.

REGARDLESS OF how qualified the new senators may be, or how well informed they are about their duties, one ingredient is needed before they can become an effective body. This important element is student interest and support.

Only the student body can supply this and, unless it does, the functioning of student government will be greatly hindered. Student government is not simply the officers and Senate. Student government involves the entire student body and every student is affected by what its governing body does.

During the past year there were times when student support was strong and other times when it was sorely lacking. Students tend to back their government only when it will be to their advantage and when it seeks more responsibility for them, but become apathetic about the routine activities of the Senate.

IF THE ELECTION time enthusiasm of our student body is shown throughout the year, the possible achievements of the Senate will be great.

Success of student government lies not only upon the student body president and the Senate, but upon each and every student. Its success or failure depends on the support given it by its constituents.

To Nelson Meyer and the Senate of 1963-64 I wish the best of luck, and to the student body I extend my thanks for making this an enjoyable and memorable year which I will never forget.

Voice Of The Campus

Informal Contact Urged

Dear Editor,

The Academic Life Committee has been concerned for some time by the relatively small amount of informal faculty-student contact on our campus.

We feel that good relations of this sort are one of the advantages of attending a college of the size of Wartburg, and we feel that this is an area that is badly in need of development here.

WE REALIZE that there are exceptions to this, but we feel that the majority of student-faculty contact takes place within the confines of the classroom under conditions which definitely aren't informal.

In regard to this problem we distributed a questionnaire to all faculty members earlier this year. We would like to share the results of this study with the student body.

All 25 faculty members who returned the questionnaires said that they were in favor of informal discussions between faculty and students. Twelve of them had attempted such discussions in the past, most of them being unsuccessful because of lack of student interest.

NINETEEN OF them said they would be willing to meet either on campus or in their homes. The feeling that such discussions should be the result of the students' initiative and should remain informal and unstructured was presented several times.

We would particularly like to share with you a paragraph from one of the answers which we feel points out another aspect to the situation.

"If, somehow, students and faculty members would join each other at coffee in the Den without pre-arrangement, or if students would invite faculty and faculty students to have coffee together, perhaps something could be done to establish the feeling that all people on the campus are supposedly here for the same purpose: to learn and develop.

"Students must be less selfish than they have been and are. They must not expect 100 per cent giving from the faculty in a social-intellectual relationship; a ration of 50-50 would be more profitable for all concerned."

Paul Wilken
ALC Chairman

Stolen Pic Gives Alarm

Dear Editor,

Some subversive organization, perhaps the Republican Party, has "duped" some Wartburg student into committing a grievous crime. The President of the United States has been stolen.

Earlier this year a picture of the President was placed on the wall in Luther Hall between Republican Headquarters and the Wartburg Department of Criminology. During spring vacation this gift of the Young Democrats disappeared from its enshrinement.

To my knowledge the Department of Criminology has undertaken no investigation. This apparent laxity on the part of the Department is unwarranted. I suspect that major problems such as false alarms and break-ins have occupied most of the Department's time.

I issue a plea that the responsible person please return the picture of President Kennedy. Identification of the aforementioned picture should be no problem as it had the proper signature in the lower right-hand corner.

If the picture is not returned, then punishment in the Wartburg tradition should be inflicted. Every person who has been in Luther Hall this semester should be assessed a few cents and a new picture should be purchased.

At Wartburg "Everybody is Somebody." In this case "somebody" is a rat-fink.

With vigor,
Oscar R. Scofield

Olympics End Busy Week

By Al Zimmermann

Wartburg cindermen are scheduled to participate in the Viking Olympics today in Rock Island, Ill. The all-Lutheran college meet will be the third contest for the Knight trackmen this week.

Earlier this week the Knights lost a dual meet to Platteville State, 72-59, and placed second in a triangular with Cornell and Upper Iowa. Cornell won that contest with 79 points. Wartburg totaled 71 and Upper Iowa 15.

Freshman Mike Peich set a school record in the shot put in the meet with Platteville State when he put the shot 46' ¾", 23 inches further than the record set by Walt Bolin in 1959.

Ace distance runner, junior Lothar Columbus, ran the two mile run in 10:07.5 in last Wednesday's triangular to set another record for the Knights.

Referring to today's meet Olson said, "We are shooting for third place." Luther and Valparaiso are rated as favorites in the 12 school meet. Last year Wartburg placed fourth in the Olympics, just ⅓ of a point out of third place.

Olson has entered 17 men in today's meet. They are Columbus and junior Roger Palmer, one and two mile runs; senior Norm Mielke, low hurdles; sophomore Jim Reents, 880 yard run; Riggle, 440 yard dash; Shudlick, 440 and high hurdles; sophomore Joel Niemann, high hurdles and high jump and sophomore Ted Johnson, 100 yard dash and broad jump.

Field event entries include: Peich, shot put and discus throw; seniors Jerald Schara and Leonard Schmidt, high jump; freshmen Tom Schwab and James Fliehler, pole vault; and juniors Gary Leeper and Bob Wachholz, javelin.

Riggle, Shudlick, Davis and Zehr are entered in the mile relay. Zehr, who anchored the event in last Wednesday's near record time, is also entered in the high and low hurdles and the pole vault in today's meet. He is the only Knight entered in four events.

Track coach Dave Olson said he hopes to see the mile relay record fall today in the Olympics.

Wartburg will host Simpson next Thursday and Luther a week from today in two league dual meets. On May 14 Wartburg will meet Buena Vista, here, for the last dual meet of the season. Olson said he hopes to win two of the three contests.

All conference schools will be here for the Iowa Conference Meet on May 17 and 18. Preliminaries will be held on Friday and the finals on Saturday. Wartburg placed fourth in last year's conference meet.

Netsters Away; Norskies Coming

Looking for their initial victory, the netmen travel this weekend to Simpson and to Central. Following this they host the Luther Norskies on the Knights' home courts on Tuesday.

In action this past week the Dubuque Spartans defeated the Knights at home by a 5-2 score. Lone victors for the Knights were John Thalacker, who defeated Don Moore 6-0, 6-1, and Dave Schalkhauser, who defeated Bob Pahnke 6-4, 6-1.

In the SCI match, held Wednesday on the Waverly courts, the Panthers smashed the Knights 7-2. Lone winners for Wartburg were Doug Langholz in the singles and the doubles team of Dennis Brown and Langholz.

Knights Face BV In Critical Pair

By Doug Goke

With the most critical games of the season coming up in the next two weeks, Wartburg College baseball team today faces a tough team from Buena Vista in a double-header at Storm Lake.

B.V. is currently leading the league with a record of four wins and no losses.

Next week, the locals come up against Simpson who now stands undefeated at 2-0 in conference play. Wartburg needs a twin win on both days in order to stay in the running for the championship.

They are three games back with the record of 3-3 in conference play.

Last Wednesday, before a senior visitation day crowd, the Knights won a single game against the State College of Iowa by the score of 5-0.

The Knights got their first three runs in the bottom of the fifth inning when they put together an error, a base hit and a bunt by pitcher Leon Carley which losing pitcher Bob Kunkel threw over the third baseman's head, scoring two runs.

Carley scored the third run on a single. The final two runs came in the seventh inning as Bill Fulcher collected his third hit of the day and Carley followed with a single.

The runners advanced to second and third before a ground ball to deep short was thrown wide to first, forcing first baseman Bruce Lein to make a long stretch to get the ball.

Lein evidently twisted his ankle and fell to the ground, still holding the ball. Both Fulcher and Carley scored.

Carley allowed only two hits. He now has allowed only nine hits and one earned run in the last 31⅔ innings. Wartburg collected ten hits off of two SCI pitchers.

Ray Bye, who had been hitting only about .150 before the game, collected two hits in four tries.

Last Saturday the Knights dropped a double-header to conference foe Central as they collected only five hits in 14 innings, losing by the scores of 5-1 and 1-0.

In the first game Central scored five runs and collected 10 hits while handing Dave Langrock his second defeat of the season.

Eldon Ott collected two hits and Roger Kittleson one, but that was the extent of the Knights' hitting as Vander Tuig held the Knights in check from there on.

In the second game Langrock collected the only two hits for the Knights as pitcher Leon Carley lost his first game of the season, even though he pitched a fine game in allowing only one hit. Central got the one unearned run on an error, walk and two sacrifices.

Norse Golf Foe; Axe Is At Stake

Coach Norm Johansen's linksters face the Luther golfers today in a match which will have great bearing on the battle for the Axe.

The Norskies will bring their usual power-laden squad to Waverly today in an attempt to sew up the trophy for Luther.

Wednesday they face Drake Invitational Champion, Loras, on the Dubuque country club course in a triangular match. The other opponent is Wisconsin State, Platteville.

In recent action the linksters have been able to eke out only one victory in four matches plus a 331 total in the Drake Invitational.

Thursday at Des Moines the Knights, represented by juniors Milt Marschall and Bruce Hein and sophomores Harry Jebsen and Leigh Peitsch, could win only one match in the triple dual tournament.

They defeated Iowa Wesleyan 7-5 and dropped decisions to Parsons 6½-5½ and to Simpson 9-3 to complete action last week.

The State College of Iowa Panthers gained revenge for a previous defeat by downing the Knight Tuesday by a 9½-5½ score.

IM Volleyball Nears End

Intramural coed volleyball closed with a rush this week. Games were played on both Tuesday and Wednesday nights. On Tuesday night, the results in the American League were as follows:

Schneider defeated the Married Men, Schmidt defeated Eitmann, and Werning defeated Van Driel; in the National League Knobloch beat Thalacker, Langrock beat Fridley and Becker beat Fink.

On Wednesday night, Schneider again won, with Baldner also winning and Van Driel defeating previously unbeaten Schmidt's team. In the National League, Langrock and Knobloch again won. Thalacker's team also won, giving them their first victory of the season.

In softball, the only two games played saw the Married Men beat Clinton I by a score of 12-3. Grossmann I and Basement defeated Grossmann III 17-6, in a game which was called after five innings because of the ten-run rule.

On Monday, North Hall entertains Clinton II and Off-campus-Vollmer plays Cotta. Games for Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday will be announced in the convo bulletin on Tuesday.

Intramural bowling rolls into its final day this afternoon. Final standings will be announced next week.

Jim Ward, I.M. chairman, asks that all I.M. tennis and golf matches be played as soon as possible so that the tournament can continue without further delay. Also the final round of the I.M. ping-pong tournament has been posted and these games will be played as soon as possible.

Officers Round Out Duties

By Kathy Piotter

As the year is rapidly drawing to a close, recognition is due three seniors, Fred Dierks, Joyce Brenke and Paul Mardorf, who have served as student body officers this year.

Dierks, a psychology major from Rock Rapids, has served as student body vice president and right-hand man to the president.

BEFORE HE TOOK over this office, Fred served as Vollmer House president, a member of the Social Activities Committee and a member of Choir and Art Club.

In regard to the activities of the past year, Fred stated that his work with the Men's Coordinating Board, of which he is chairman, has been "a challenging and stimulating experience."

Its most significant contribution thus far to the student body probably was the action taken on initiation in the men's dorms.

According to Fred, the highlight of the year for him was in inter-collegiate relations such as were found in the quiz bowl programs and the TALC conference. He found that traveling to various campuses in the Iowa conference and speaking to their student leaders could accomplish much.

FROM BELLE Plaine, Minn., is Joyce Brenke who has served as student body secretary the past year. Prior to holding this office, Joyce had been junior class president, dorm president and a member of Women's Judiciary Council and Student Education Association.

Majoring in elementary education, Joyce plans to teach sixth grade in New Hampton next year.

In looking over the past year, Joyce commended the Senate for its work with various campus organizations. In line with this, she felt that the high point of the year was the change in women's hours.

Regarding student government, Joyce said, "Student government at Wartburg is growing in importance every year. The value of student involvement in government is found in its rewards to everyone connected with it.

THREE SENIORS, Paul Mardorf, Joyce Brenke and Fred Dierks conclude an active year in student government.

"I CAN ONLY say that I have enjoyed being in Senate for three years and wish that every student would have the sincere desire to see that student government continues on as high a level in the future as it has in the past. I want to give my greatest wish for success and accomplishments to the future student governments at Wartburg."

Student body treasurer, Paul Mardorf, is a business administration and economics major from Manson. He previously served as junior class vice president, treasurer of student congregation and vice president of Business Students Association.

Paul feels that the main accomplishment of the year has been the extension of women's hours.

"EVEN THOUGH this took a great deal of time and effort on the part of many, I am sure that it will be well worth it. It could change the whole attitude of some toward Wartburg. An improved relationship between the students and the administration has been achieved," he said.

Paul expressed his feelings on student government by saying, "In looking back over my first and only year in Senate, I am very grateful to have been a part of it.

"I feel that my participation in student government has given me a greater appreciation of what Wartburg College is and stands for and has proven to me that it is one of the best, if not the best, place to get an education. I wish that every student could have this opportunity to be a part of the Student Senate of Wartburg College," concluded Mardorf, a former ankle-wrapper at Manson High School.

Quiz Bowl Set For Convo

A college quiz bowl contest between Wartburg and Simpson College, Indianola, is set for Tuesday's convocation, with four students participating from each school.

This type of contest is based upon instant recollection. Students are given questions and an allotted time to answer them. It is based on General Electric's televised College Quiz Bowl.

BOTH SCHOOLS WILL submit an equal portion of questions to be used. When Wartburg traveled to Simpson earlier in the year, Simpson submitted all questions. Each team will also have its own scorekeeper.

This meet will be a beginning of intercollegiate and intramural competition to be carried out next year to give Wartburg students a preview of this type of contest.

THEY ARE BEING prepared for the contest by John Ness, Speech Department. Dr. P. A. Kildahl, English Department, will moderate the panel.

Speaker for Thursday's convocation will be the Rev. Jack Aamot, missionary to Brazil. He is presently on a year's furlough and is working for the ALC Youth Department in Minneapolis, Minn.

Aamot is a graduate of St. Olaf College, Northfield, Minn., and attended Luther Seminary, St. Paul.

3 Senior Recitals Set Next Week

Three senior recitals will be presented by music students Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Chapel-auditorium.

Students are William Burcham, baritone, from Rudd; Linda Blobaum, oboist, from Humboldt, Neb.; and Joyce Finchum, mezzo soprano, from Emden, Ill.

First part of Burcharm's concert will consist of two Brahms selections, "Sapphische Ode" and "O Wusst' ich doch den Weg Zurich."

"Humoresque," by Franz Reizenstein will be Miss Blobaum's first selection.

Several selections by Hageman will be included in Miss Finchum's recital. She will sing "Fear Not the Night," "At the Well," "Do Not Go, My Love" and "The Rich Man."

Congregation Retreat Scheduled Tomorrow

A student congregation retreat will be held tomorrow for Wartburg students at Camp Ingawanis from 2-7 p.m.

Dr. James Fritschel, Music Department, will be the featured speaker. His topic will be "The Christian College As a Community." A discussion will also be held following.

A singspiration and vespers, led by sophomore Paul Wegner, will follow a cost picnic supper.

Students will leave the Union at 1:30 p.m. with rides being provided.

Event is sponsored by the Christian Growth Committee.
